GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE

A person must register whenever the person receives compensation or expends funds in any three consecutive calendar month period for lobbying. A person who receives compensation from more than one source in any three consecutive calendar period for lobbying must register if the aggregate amount is $250 or more. Each law firm, association or business entity employed to lobby must register in the name of the respective entity; provided that a partner, member or employee who performs lobbying duties, under 3 DCMR §3100.1 (June 1998 as amended) must be listed as a lobbyist. Each individual, association or business entity which directly employs a person in-house or retains a lobbying firm to lobby on its behalf must register in the name of the respective entity; provided, that the retained lobbyist or lobbying employee must be listed as a lobbyist on the Lobbyist Registration Form, under §3100.7.

WHEN TO FILE

A registrant must file a registration form with the Office of Campaign on or before January 15th of each year, or not later than fifteen (15) days after becoming a lobbyist. A registrant must file a separate registration form for each person from whom compensation is received. A document is timely filed upon delivery to the Office of Campaign Finance by 5:30p.m. of the prescribed filing date. Reports and statements sent by mail must be received by 5:30p.m. on the prescribed filing date to be timely filed.

WHERE TO FILE

A Lobbyist Registration Form must be filed or mailed to the Office of Campaign Finance, Frank D. Reeves Municipal Building, 2000 14th Street, NW, Suite 420, Washington, D.C. 20009.

OVERVIEW OF LOBBYING

D.C. Code § 1-1451 (7) (a), defines "lobbying" to mean "communicating directly with any official in the legislative or executive branch of the District of Columbia Government with the purpose of influencing any legislative action or administrative decision."

The term "lobbying", pursuant to D.C. Code § 1-1451 (7) (B) does not include: (1) the appearance of presentation of written testimony by a person in his own behalf, or representation by an attorney on behalf of any such person in a rule-making (which includes a formal hearing) rate-making, or adjudicatory hearing before an executive agency or the Tax Assessor; (2) information supplied in response to written inquiries by an executive agency or the Council of the District of Columbia or any public official; (3) inquiries concerning only the status of specific actions by an executive agency or the Council of the District of Columbia; (4) testimony given before a Committee of the Council of the District of Columbia or the Council of the District of Columbia, during which a public record is made of such proceedings or testimony submitted for inclusion in such a public record; (5) a communication made through the instrumentality of a newspaper, television or radio of general circulation; and (6) communication by a bona fide political party as defined in D.C. Code § 1-1401 (10).

The term "legislative action", pursuant to D.C. Code § 1-1451(6), means any activity conducted by an official in the legislative branch in the normal course of carrying out his/her duties as such an official, and relating to the introduction, passage or defeat of any legislation in the Council.

The term "administrative decision", pursuant to D.C. § 1451(1), means any activity directly related to action by an executive agency to issue a Mayor's Order, to undertake a rule making proceeding (which does not include a formal public hearing) under the District of Columbia Administrative Procedure Act, or to propose legislation or make nominations to the Council, the President, or Congress.

6. Identify the official in the Executive or Legislative Branch with who the registrant has had oral or written communication during the reporting period relating to lobbying activities, and the date that communication was made. Attach an OCF Supplemental Sheet if additional space is needed. (See attached supplement)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE

Each lobbying registrant must file a Lobbyist Activity Report where compensation is received or expenditures are made during the reporting period for lobbying for local affairs in the District of Columbia. A separate activity report must be filed for each person from whom compensation is received. Each law firm, association or business entity employed to lobby must register in the name of the respective entity; provided that a partner, member or employee who performs lobbying duties, under 3 DCMR §3100.1 (June 1998 as amended) must be listed as a lobbyist. Each individual, association or business entity which directly employs a person in-house or retains a lobbying firm to lobby on its behalf must register in the name of the respective entity; provided, that the retained lobbyist or lobbying employee must be listed as a lobbyist on the Lobbyist Registration Form, under §3100.7. If a lobbying registrant incurs no reportable receipts or expenditure during the report period, the registrant is still required to file a Lobbyist Activity Report.

WHEN TO FILE

Activity Reports of the previous six (6) month period must be filed every year by each registrant at the following times: (a) January 10th for the period covering July 1st through December 31st; and (b) July 10th, for the period covering January 1st through June 30th.

WHERE TO FILE

A Lobbyist Activity Report must be filed or mailed to the Office of Campaign Finance, Frank D. Reeves Municipal Building, 2000 – 14th Street, NW, Suite 420, Washington, D.C. 20009. The phone number of the Office of Campaign Finance is (202) 671-0547.
